Site Supervisor CCS-R Midterm Evaluation

General overview

The Counselor Competencies Scale-Revised (CCS-R) assesses counselors' and trainees' competencies. Additionally, the CCS-R provides counselors and trainees with direct feedback regarding their counseling skills, facilitate therapeutic conditions, and their counseling dispositions (dominant qualities) and practical areas for improvement to support their development as effective and ethical professionals.

CACREP (2016) Common Core Standards:

- Strategies for personal and professional self-evaluation and implications for practice.
- Self-care strategies appropriate to the counselor role (Section II, Standard 1.i.).
- Multicultural counseling competencies (Section II, Standard 2.c.)
- A general framework for understanding differing abilities and strategies for different abilities (Section III, Standard 3.h.).
- Ethical and culturally relevant strategies for establishing and maintaining in-person and virtual relationships (Section III, Standard 5.d.).
- Counselor characteristics and behaviors that influence the counseling processes.
- Essential interviewing, counseling, and case conceptualization skills (Section II, Standard 2.a.).
- Developmentally relevant counseling treatment or intervention plans (Section II, Standard 2.b.).
- Processes for aiding students in developing a personal model of counseling (Section III, Standard 3.g.).
- The counselor education program faculty has a systematic process in place for the retention, remediation, and dismissal. (Section 4, Standard H.).
- Professional practice, which includes practicum and internship, provides for the acquisition of skills under supervision. These experiences will provide opportunities for students to serve the demographic diversity of their community (Section III, Professional Practice).
- Entry-Level Professional Practice and Practicum (Section III, Professional Practice)
 - a. Students are covered by individual professional counseling liability insurance.
 - b. Supervision of practicum students includes program-appropriate audio/video recordings of interactions with clients.
