

TEACHING PRESENTATION LESSON PLAN TEMPLATE

Lesson Topic: Genograms for Family Counseling

Learning Outcomes: List at least 2-3 learning outcomes for the lesson.

1. After this presentation, the student will be able to create a Genogram based on an interview with a peer.
2. After this presentation, the student will be able to examine a Genogram for family interactional patterns.
3. After this presentation, the student will be able to identify ways a Genogram can be used to aid in family therapy.

Class Knowledge: What will you build on? How will you link this to prior lessons or concepts?
This lesson builds on the foundational theories of family systems. The first five weeks of lectures covered general systems theory and specific skills a family therapist should develop.

Timeline, Strategies, Resources, and Rational Chart

Time allotted	Teaching Activity	Resources Needed	Rationale
1 minute	Introduction of topic	PowerPoint: Road Map	Provide direction for the students and a plan for the class
5 minutes	Definition of a Genogram	PPT Slide	Give a baseline for understanding the use of genograms in family therapy
10 minutes	Genogram Interview	2 PPT slides	Give clinical rationale and theoretical pretense for gathering historical and FOO information
5 minutes	Benefits of using a Genogram in family therapy	PPT slide	Encourage students to use this helpful therapeutic tool and excite students about the outcomes of its use
3 minutes	Video of McGoldrick in therapy	Video	Give context for the use of a genogram in practice and excite students about the conceptualization of family systems
5 minutes	Scanning for Patterns	PPT slide	Give examples of the types of patterns seen through the mapping of a FOO through a Genogram

5 minutes	Constructing a Genogram	4 PPT slide	Give practical instruction on how to begin the use of Genograms
4 minutes	Video of McGoldrick in a therapeutic session	Video	Show the benefits of using a theory based on Genograms and excite the students about conceptualizing family systems
20 minutes	Classroom discussion and creation of a genogram based on a case study	PPT slide	Give opportunity to practice using the tool
30 minutes	Pair and share practicing Genogram interviews	PPT slide	Give opportunity to practice gathering important information for mapping a client's FOO